By Ysabeau Ferch Gwalchafed

May Day, May Day, the pre-registration deadline is May 1, after that date prices increase by $3! Please send in your reservations to the clerk so that we can show our pride in our Kingdom and our Barony. This is an excellent event to get a taste of the Pennsic Wars if you've never gone before.

Many new items have been added to the schedule, including a historical display reflecting Atlantia's proud history, Torchlight tournaments in both heavy weapons and rapier combat. Her Majesty's "escallop erminois" Arts and Science competition

Their excellencies also will be choosing their Baronial Champions for Heavy Weapons, Rapier, and Arts and Sciences. Autocrat Melisent La Ruse is also looking for volunteers for event set up and cleanup, and also for troll shifts during the event. Check the official event website www.geocities.com/sapphirejoust, for more details as they become available.

Message from the Baron and Baroness

By: William Cameron & Katerina Von Wolfenburg

Greetings all! Sapphire Joust/Atlantia 25th Anniversary is fast approaching. There will be a lot to do before, during and after the event, please consider helping with this enormous effort. Please get your reservation in soon as we would really hate for you to have to miss out on this great event. This being Atlantia 25th Anniversary, we look for this to be well attended.

We also will be choosing our new Baronial Champions at Sapphire. There will be an open A & S display for those interested in becoming the next Baronial A&S Champion. Our Armor and Rapier Champions will be chosen from those participating in martial activities.

The Baroness will once again be hosting the baronial gather at her home on the 13th, more details to follow. She is also needs help with making the 25th Kingdom Anniversary Banners for Sapphire. Please contact her if you are able to help her with this.

University will be held in Isenfiir on June 3 at the UVA campus. This is a great chance to take some classes and it's only a short drive.

Lord Gustav will be coordinating Pennsic camp this year for the Barony. If you plan to camp with us this year, please let him know and get your reservation ASAP. As the amount of space we have is determined by those who pre-registers.

As always we are looking for worthy individuals to bestow awards unto. Please contact us if you have any recommendations.

Ladies Lissette la Bergiere and Lady Clelia of the Mists announce the formation of a weekly sewing circle to be held alternatively in their homes on Wednesday nights.

The third Wednesday of the month the sewing circle will meet at Clelia's home from 6 to 10 p.m. in Chester. All other weeks it will meet at Lissette's home in Genito from 5:30 to 9 p.m.

The sewing circle is open to everyone, so come bring a project to work on, or get great advice and assistance from these two sewing divas! Gentlemen, don't be shy, please feel welcome here. Please bring your own snacks, and those allergic to dogs may want to avoid attending at Chester location.

Cear Mear Website Renovation

It's been a while since we seriously overhauled the Caer Mear website, believe me, the stone wallpaper is looking a little tired. Please send any thoughts and suggestions to me, to the Webmaster Laz (info under Knight Marshall) or the new deputy Webmaster Andrew Cuoghi, at FST79TA at gmail.com.

Call for Articles, Photos and Artwork.

By Ysabeau Ferch Gwalchafed

I think I've gotten the hand of this publishing thing, and the rush of keeping everyone up to date on our local spring events is nearly over. I've realized that my next edition is due out the week of Sapphire Joust. I would really love to showcase our local talent by making June's edition all about the history of Atlantia and Caer Mear. Any articles, artwork, and photos can be submitted under my contact information and also would be deeply appreciated.
